REV. J. C. DAVIS DIES
IN EIGHTY-NINTH YEAR

Athens, Ga., March 11.—(Special).—The Rev. J. C. Davis, D. D., aged 81 years, said to be the oldest Episcopal minister in the state, died at the home of his only son, W. C. Davis, here to-night after an illness which had practically extended since his wife's death two years ago.

He was rector of Emmanuel church here for sixteen years, later rector at Concord, N. C., and three years ago re-

Eastman Makes First Ice.
Eastman, Ga., March 11.—(Special.) The Eastman ice plant turned out its first block of ice during the past week, and the sample was good, firm and clear. The plant is up-to-date in every way. The machinery, manufactured and installed by the Frick company, of Pittsburgh is the best, and it is arranged in a good shape. It is being inspected for the purpose by the company.
